The Carmel Pine Cone Cymbal

Another Republican Club Organized; Democratic Clubs Active, Community Emerges From Political Lethargy

Carmel Republican party leaders got their heads together here Tuesday night to make plans for a club for the male members of the party, and it was decided to call a general meeting at Sunset Library at eight o'clock Tuesday, September 12, at which Ed Ewig, Republican Central Committeeman from Carmel, will preside as temporary chairman. Election of officers will take place and plans will be laid for the coming campaign. All male members of the party are invited to attend.

The Republican women are already organized and are holding meetings under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Clark Cranston, Central Committeewoman for Carmel.

Democratic women, headed by Mrs. Clara Kellogg have also been holding meetings here, making campaign plans, and both party organizations have begun a drive to urge the public to register for the coming general election, November 7, and to instruct the newcomers and service men and women on the details of absentee voting. The Democratic Women are to hold a meeting this afternoon at Room 11, Sunset, for a discussion of the topic, "Who's Who and What's What in the Coming Campaign." And last Sunday a Peninsula wide organization of both Democratic men and women held its first meeting at Pacific Grove, numbering among its speakers. Dr. E. O. Sisson of Carmel.

In addition to the activities of the two major party groups, there is the League of Women Voters, a non partisan organization, that held a meeting last week to outline a program to get the electorate registered and for speakers to enlighten the public on the state measures that will be on the ballot at the general election. Mrs. Louise Grigsby is president.

In the neighboring column are more detailed stories of the activities of the various groups during the past week.

Meanwhile, Carmel is to have a curtain raiser to the general election in its sanitary board election on September 18. Though there is no contest, Bernard Rowntree, candidate for District Assessor, expressed the hope that a good number of the electorate turn out for a complimentary vote. "It is most discouraging to run for office, give one's time and labor to community service, and then have a vote of 25 or 30 turn out on election day," was his comment.

New Measures To Be Studied By League Of Women Voters

Discussion of the measures to be submitted to the voters in the November election is the program for the first fall meeting of the League of Women Voters, to be held late in October, probably at the Memory Garden in Monterey. During September the league members will renew their campaign to get all persons eligible to register before the deadline on the 28th, and will maintain an information booth for the voters at some convenient place. These activities were decided upon at the meeting of the executive board on August 23 at the Robles del Rio home of the president, Mrs. Louise Grigsby.

The occasion began with a picnic lunch under the oaks, after which the members adjourned to the living room with its spacious view of Carmel Valley and its boundary of rolling hills. After the regular business, Mrs. Blanchard Steeves, legislative chairman, gave a review of an important new book, "The American Senate and World Peace," by Kenneth Colegrove, professor of political science at Northwestern University. Ten members of the board attended the meeting.

Officers, directors and committee chairmen of the organization are as follows: Mrs. Louise Grigsby, president; Mrs. Bertha Hellam, first vice-president; Mrs. Vera Peck Millis, second vice-president: Mrs. Bruce Spencer, recording sec-

Dr. Sisson Speaker At Demo Club Meet In Pacific Grove

Dr. E. O. Sisson, Carmel, Rev. Denzil Carlisle and Mr. Calvin Cope, Pacific Grove, were the speakers at a meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Democratic Club held Sunday at the Woman's Civic Club in Pacific Grove.

Dr. Sisson stressed that the two important issues today are the creation of world order and the achievement of prosperity and happiness in our own country.

The Rev. Carlisle's subject was the responsibility of a citizen in a democracy, and Mr. Cope spoke of the role of the adult school in assisting the citizen in acquainting him with his responsibility as a voter and citizen.

Officers elected were Mr. J. A. McDonough, Monterey, chairman, Mrs. W. M. Golden, Pacific Grove, vice chairman, and Mrs. James Speakman, Pacific Grove, secretary-treasurer.

Nominations Close With No Contest For Board Election

The period for filing nomination papers by candidates for election to the Sanitary District Board and for District Assessor closed Tuesday without any contest developing in the election to be held Monday, September 18.

Hugh Comstock, Clayton Neill and Dr. T. Grant Phillips are running without competition for the three four year memberships to the Sanitary Board, and Bernard Rowntree's candicacy for District

Lieut. Holyoake Plants Redwoods On Pacific Isles

Of interest to the many Carmel friends of Lieutenant (j.g.) De Forest Holyoake, U.S.N.R., is the word just received of his idealistic one-man project among the newly liberated islands of the South Pacific.

Some time ago he obtained an infant California Giant Sequoia redwood tree from Clarence F. ("Sandy") Pratt, president of the Outdoor Christmas Tree association, donor of thousands of these trees for their replanting in various parts of the world, and carried it with him on his ship, its roots carefully packed in moss, with a special idea of his own for its eventual destiny. The opportunity to carry out his plan came three months ago, when he landed on the first of the recaptured South Pacific islands and planted the tree as a symbol of restored liberty as well as a memorial to the men who had given their lives there. Since that time his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. Holyoake of Piedmont, have dispatched to him no less than twenty-five similar two-year-old Sequoias, packed in tubes, ready to be carried ashore and planted as their turn comes

Riotous Olio Lined Up for "Drunkard" Opening Tonight

Surprises, mystery and riotous comedy will mark the fast-stepping olio that will be given with the performance of The Drunkard at the Sunset Auditorium September 1 and 2, 8 and 9th at 8:30 p.m.

Louise Welty has generously given her spare time to directing the olio that it may be authentic and yet lose none of its spontaneity. Allen Knight will be master of ceremonies, and for the olio, he and Ruth McElroy will put on a vaudeville number that can be counted upon to be a riot. A newcomer, Judith Brines, a young actress that played in the summer productions of the Pasadena playhouse, will be soloist and present the alluring songs of the haunting, swooning Nineties. There will be song and dance numbers by the Hildebrand sisters, whose talents are well known, to add a colorful note to the olio. Their mother, Mrs. Evelyn Hildebrand will accompany them, and is also pianist for the olio, a feat in itself.

June Delight will contribute a surprise, and Alys Knight, a new eight-year-old star whose partner is a dark horse will appear in a special number. Carl Bensberg is

Reconstruction Subject of Talk At GOP Meeting

At the meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Republican Women's Club in the Girl Scout House last Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Helen Clark Cranston gave the members and their friends the necessary information regarding registering.

She also talked on post war problems, discussing both the international and domestic issues. The first problem, Mrs. Cranston said, is winning the war. Then, if we are to win the peace, we must carefully consider not only the immediate terms of that peace, but those of far reaching importance. If the peace is to be enduring, great wisdom must be used in the planning of post war reconstruction abroad.

In the discussion of domestic problems, Mrs. Cranston said that the reconversion question has vital importance for every American. She stressed the need for men of ability and experience, acting in the public interest, to direct the reconversion of our man-power and industries to peace time production.

She pointed out that women will hold the balance of power at the polls in the coming election, and they should make it a well-informed intelligent vote.

Marion Hollins

Miss Marion Hollins, well known on the Peninsula since she came here in 1922 to become an associate of the real estate division of Del Monte Properties, died on Sunday evening at a Pacific Grove rest home following an illness of three weeks. She was 50 years of age.

A native of Long Island, the daughter of the late Harry B. Hollins, she inherited from her father an ardent interest in sports and early achieved top ranking among this country's great women athletes. She won the United States Women's national golf championship in 1921, and in addition was noted as an outstanding tennis player, as the only woman ever ranked in polo by men's standards, holding for many years a 2-goal rating, and as a fearless and accomplished horsewoman.

She is survived by four brothers: Harry B. Hollins, Jr., and Gerald V. Hollins, of East Islip, Lon Island, McKim Hollins of Pebble Beach and J. K. Hollins of Beaufort, South Carolina.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 on Wednesday afternoon at St. John's Chapel, Del Monte, with Rev. Theodore Bell officiating, and arrangements in charge of the T. A. Dorney Funeral Home in Monterey.

Fire Department Burning Off Lots

Considerable Carmel grass has been going up in smoke the last three weeks, most of it with the sanction and approval of the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department.

On their Thursday drill night, the volunteers burned off the lots at Carpenter and Second, the strip along Ocean from Junipero to Torres and the hillside north of the High School.

Tuesday noon, however, two corner lots at First and Guadalupe, were burned off by grace of a carelessly tossed match or cigarette. When the fire department arrived the firemen who lived in the vicinity and neighbors had the fire under observation, and the accident was turned into a job of lot clearing. "That lot was next on our list to be burned off anyway," observed Engine Driver Dave Machado.

Olive Cabaniss

Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning in Paul's Chapel, Pacific Grove, for Mrs. Olive Williams Cabaniss, whose death occurred on Monday, August 28, at a local hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Cabaniss was born in 1871 in San Francisco. Possessed of a keen mind and characterized throughout her life by her breadth of interest, she came to know much of the world first hand through the wide travel she shared with her husband, Mr. Charles A. T. Cabaniss. Several years were spent at one time in New York, doing valuable work in the library of Columbia University, and more recently she and her husband made an extensive trip to Mexico.

For the past fifteen years she has been a resident of the Monterey Peninsula, taking an active part in the civic and social life here, serving for a time as president of the local Christian Science church, and sharing generously with many friends the flowers she cultivated as a hobby in the beautiful gardens surrounding the Cabaniss home in the Country club.

Besides her husband, Mr. Charles A. T. Cabaniss, she is survived by a brother, H. W. Bousfield of Brattleboro, Vermont.

Maj. Wm. Dekker

Word that Major William N. Dekker, U. S. Army Air Force, previously reported missing in action since July 19, 1943, has now been officially listed as presumed dead, was this week received by his wife, Mrs. Mary Steinbeck Dekker, who with their two young daughters, Sue and Joan, makes her home at Camino Real and Santa Lucia in Carmel.

Major Dekker, long prominent in business and civic affairs in Monterey, where for a time he served as president of the Monterey Chamber of Commerce, first took up flying as a hobby at the Monterey Airport, and entered the Air Force in February, 1941. He was sent to North Africa in November, 1942 with the Troop Carrier Command and following the African campaign, took part in the first troop landings in Sicily.

The Distinguished Flying Cross, awarded to Major Dekker "for the display of outstanding leadership and extraordinary achievements in leading a Troop Carrier group on a particularly hazardous parachute mission into enemy territory on the night of 11-12 July, 1943" and the Air Medal won by him "for meritorious achievement while participating in a night aerial flight as a member of a combat crew in unarmed, unarmored and unescorted Troop Carrier Aircraft at an altitude of less than 500 feet under adverse flying conditions" were presented to Mrs. Dekker in ceremonies held last May at the Salinas Army Air Base of the 4th Air Force.

Anna L. Sheets Is Fined $250.00 For Contempt Of Court

Mrs. Anna L. Sheets was fined $250 by Judge Louis E. Goodwin in Federal Court in San Francisco Wednesday on a charge of contempt of court with the provision that payment of the fine will be suspended on two conditions: That she refund all over-charges since May 31, 1944, over the amounts set forth as the maximum rent for her property in the preliminary injunction within thirty days, and that at the end of six months she can show she has complied with all court orders and rent regulations.

In the case of Capt. Chisholm, she is required to refund to him an amount specified because he was not allowed the use of a garage included with his rental.

McDonald's Dairy To Open Tuesday

Carmel people will have an opportunity to visit the new home of McDonald's Dairy on San Carlos between 6th and 7th on Tuesday from two to five in the afternoon, Gene Ricketts, the proprietor, said this week.

Work has been going on throughout the summer on the $20,000 concrete building with its Spanish tile roof, and this week the last of the fixtures were placed and equipment was being installed. Of interest to Carmel diners-out is the lunch room in the forward part of the building with its cool green walls, bright red fountain counter, and oak booths with red leather seat covers, where breakfasts and sandwich lunches, as well as the usual soda fountain refreshments will be served.

Behind the lunch room are the office, spotless pasteurizing room, with an adjoining ice box the size of a Carmel cottage, and unloading and handling areas.

Mr. Ricketts, who has been a resident of Carmel for 16 years, has been proprietor of McDonald's Dairy for eight. He and Mrs. Ricketts have been among the most enthusiastic Abalone League members, and now Michael, 9, and Patsy, 7, are looking forward to the revival of the league after the war so they can contribute to the family ball playing reputation.

to take root on other freed islands.

Lt. Holyoake's interest in the Giant Sequoias dates back to his boyhood. Six years ago he sent one to some friends in Honolulu for replanting and discovered that it not only throve there, but has since surrounded itself with a number of healthy young seedlings, proving to him that his present idea of providing living memorials on the islands of the South Pacific is a practical one. With each planting he carefully makes a note of its location, with the idea of retracing his steps after the war and providing a suitable marker for his trees.

Lt. Holyoake began spending his summers in Carmel when he was two months old, continued to come here annually with his family until the outbreak of the war. During one summer eighteen years ago he served as a printer's apprentice on the Pine Cone. His parents plan to return to their Piedmont home this weekend after spending the past month in the Hammond house on Scenic Drive.

Stag Dance At "Club" Final Event Of Summer

The final gala event of the summer program at The Club, Carmel's teen-age recreation center, will take place next Saturday evening, in the form of an all-stag dance, for which preparations have been afoot this week under the leadership of Mr. H. L. Learned, Club Counselor, who has joined the faculty of the high school this fall as head of the instrumental music department. A native of Stockton and graduate of the College of the Pacific with a degree in music from Northwestern University, Mr. Learned taught prior to the outbreak of the war at Wesleyan University, Lincoln, Nebraska.

The Club's new juke box will provide music for the dance and a feature of the evening will be the serving of refreshments. Club memberships will also be on sale at this time. Sundry glamourous improvements and repairs, the work of Chet Knapp-Smith, Arthur Harber and Floyd Adams, Jr., will make their initial appearance Saturday evening, including a sprightly new red top on the pool table. Decorations are in charge of Pamela Dormody and her committee.

A committee of adult chaperons will be on hand to assist Mr. and Mrs. Learned.

A general assembly of all students interested in The Club and its activities, or desirous of becoming members, is called for Tuesday evening, September 12, at 7 p. m., at which time student officers for the coming term will be elected. The advisory Board of The Club is composed of Mrs. J. O. Handley, president; Mrs. G. A. Moller; Mrs. Robert Stanton; Mrs. Carmalita Benson; Mrs. A. E. Thorne; Mr. J. W. Getsinger and Mr O. W. Irwin.

Student plans for the garnishment of The Club in the future include landscape gardening, the enlargement of the refreshment fountain, and the division of the interior into three separate rooms; one for ping-pong, one for pool and the remainder of the space for dancing.

Though there is no contest, Bernard Rowntree, candidate for District Assessor, expressed the hope that a good number of the electorate turn out for a complimentary vote. "It is most discouraging to run for office, give one's time and labor to community service, and then have a vote of 25 or 30 turn out on election day," was his comment.

New Measures To Be Studied By League Of Women Voters

Discussion of the measures to be submitted to the voters in the November election is the program for the first fall meeting of the League of Women Voters, to be held late in October, probably at the Memory Garden in Monterey. During September the league members will renew their campaign to get all persons eligible to register before the deadline on the 28th, and will maintain an information booth for the voters at some convenient place. These activities were decided upon at the meeting of the executive board on August 23 at the Robles del Rio home of the president, Mrs. Louise Grigsby.

The occasion began with a picnic lunch under the oaks, after which the members adjourned to the living room with its spacious view of Carmel Valley and its boundary of rolling hills. After the regular business, Mrs. Blanchard Steeves, legislative chairman, gave a review of an important new book, "The American Senate and World Peace," by Kenneth Colegrove, professor of political science at Northwestern University. Ten members of the board attended the meeting.

Officers, directors and committee chairmen of the organization are as follows: Mrs. Louise Grigsby, president; Mrs. Bertha Hellam, first vice-president; Mrs. Vera Peck Millis, second vice-president: Mrs. Bruce Spencer, recording sec-

Of interest to the many Carmel friends of Lieutenant (j.g.) De Forest Holyoake, U.S.N.R., is the word just received of his idealistic one-man project among the newly liberated islands of the South Pacific.

Some time ago he obtained an infant California Giant Sequoia redwood tree from Clarence F. ("Sandy") Pratt, president of the Outdoor Christmas Tree association, donor of thousands of these trees for their replanting in various parts of the world, and carried it with him on his ship, its roots carefully packed in moss, with a special idea of his own for its eventual destiny. The opportunity to carry out his plan came three months ago, when he landed on the first of the recaptured South Pacific islands and planted the tree as a symbol of restored liberty as well as a memorial to the men who had given their lives there. Since that time his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. Holyoake of Piedmont, have dispatched to him no less than twenty-five similar two-year-old Sequoias, packed in tubes, ready to be carried ashore and planted as their turn comes

Surprises, mystery and riotous comedy will mark the fast-stepping olio that will be given with the performance of The Drunkard at the Sunset Auditorium September 1 and 2, 8 and 9th at 8:30 p.m.

Louise Welty has generously given her spare time to directing the olio that it may be authentic and yet lose none of its spontaneity. Allen Knight will be master of ceremonies, and for the olio, he and Ruth McElroy will put on a vaudeville number that can be counted upon to be a riot. A newcomer, Judith Brines, a young actress that played in the summer productions of the Pasadena playhouse, will be soloist and present the alluring songs of the haunting, swooning Nineties. There will be song and dance numbers by the Hildebrand sisters, whose talents are well known, to add a colorful note to the olio. Their mother, Mrs. Evelyn Hildebrand will accompany them, and is also pianist for the olio, a feat in itself.

June Delight will contribute a surprise, and Alys Knight, a new eight-year-old star whose partner is a dark horse will appear in a special number. Carl Bensberg is

Reconstruction Subject of Talk At GOP Meeting

At the meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Republican Women's Club in the Girl Scout House last Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Helen Clark Cranston gave the members and their friends the necessary information regarding registering.

She also talked on post war problems, discussing both the international and domestic issues. The first problem, Mrs. Cranston said, is winning the war. Then, if we are to win the peace, we must carefully consider not only the immediate terms of that peace, but those of far reaching importance. If the peace is to be enduring, great wisdom must be used in the planning of post war reconstruction abroad.

In the discussion of domestic problems, Mrs. Cranston said that the reconversion question has vital importance for every American. She stressed the need for men of ability and experience, acting in the public interest, to direct the reconversion of our man-power and industries to peace time production.

She pointed out that women will hold the balance of power at the polls in the coming election, and they should make it a well-informed intelligent vote.

Dr. Sisson Speaker At Demo Club Meet In Pacific Grove

Dr. E. O. Sisson, Carmel, Rev. Denzil Carlisle and Mr. Calvin Cope, Pacific Grove, were the speakers at a meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Democratic Club held Sunday at the Woman's Civic Club in Pacific Grove.

Dr. Sisson stressed that the two important issues today are the creation of world order and the achievement of prosperity and happiness in our own country.

The Rev. Carlisle's subject was the responsibility of a citizen in a democracy, and Mr. Cope spoke of the role of the adult school in assisting the citizen in acquainting him with his responsibility as a voter and citizen.

Officers elected were Mr. J. A. McDonough, Monterey, chairman, Mrs. W. M. Golden, Pacific Grove, vice chairman, and Mrs. James Speakman, Pacific Grove, secretary-treasurer.

Marion Hollins

Miss Marion Hollins, well known on the Peninsula since she came here in 1922 to become an associate of the real estate division of Del Monte Properties, died on Sunday evening at a Pacific Grove rest home following an illness of three weeks. She was 50 years of age.

A native of Long Island, the daughter of the late Harry B. Hollins, she inherited from her father an ardent interest in sports and early achieved top ranking among this country's great women athletes. She won the United States Women's national golf championship in 1921, and in addition was noted as an outstanding tennis player, as the only woman ever ranked in polo by men's standards, holding for many years a 2-goal rating, and as a fearless and accomplished horsewoman.

She is survived by four brothers: Harry B. Hollins, Jr., and Gerald V. Hollins, of East Islip, Lon Island, McKim Hollins of Pebble Beach and J. K. Hollins of Beaufort, South Carolina.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 on Wednesday afternoon at St. John's Chapel, Del Monte, with Rev. Theodore Bell officiating, and arrangements in charge of the T. A. Dorney Funeral Home in Monterey.

Fire Department Burning Off Lots

Considerable Carmel grass has been going up in smoke the last three weeks, most of it with the sanction and approval of the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department.

On their Thursday drill night, the volunteers burned off the lots at Carpenter and Second, the strip along Ocean from Junipero to Torres and the hillside north of the High School.

Tuesday noon, however, two corner lots at First and Guadalupe, were burned off by grace of a carelessly tossed match or cigarette. When the fire department arrived the firemen who lived in the vicinity and neighbors had the fire under observation, and the accident was turned into a job of lot clearing. "That lot was next on our list to be burned off anyway," observed Engine Driver Dave Machado.

Children's Theatre Demonstration Held Over Week End

The Children's Theatre Center held a demonstration of their summer's progress Thursday and Friday afternoons, August 24th and 25th at the Forest Hill School, in Carmel.

Miss Stebbins, director of the Children's Theatre Center, explained to the parents and interested friends who had been invited, that the afternoon's activities were to be conducted informally and were to be regarded as open classes.

The younger children held their open classes on Thursday and the older ones on Friday.

Those participating in the informal open classes on Thursday were Renee Wurzman, Lisa Doty, Julie Woodworth, Paula Murphy, Gale Marshal, and Edith Stebbins, assisted in the dance work by Carol Hildebrand. Joan Larkey and Betty Ryland also contributed to the projects of the younger children.

Those participating in the open classes on Friday were Dolora Sharpe, Jennefer Lloyd, Rietta Wolf-Salin, Virginia Pioda, Marian Woodworth, Carol Hildebrand, Dell Hildebrand, Joan Larkey, Betty Ryland, and Bill Curtis.

The speech and acting work was taught and directed by Miss Edith Stebbins, the dance work was taught and directed by Margery Schneider, with musical accompaniment by Evelyn Nidever Hildebrand, and the arts and crafts classes were under the direction of Grace Yenni. The Forest Hill School made a charming setting for the children's activities and the Children's Theatre Center is indebted to Miss Grace Douglas, director of the Forest Hill School, for her interest and support throughout the summer.

David Smiley

Private funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. today in Paul's Chapel, Pacific Grove, for David Nelson Smiley, who died at his home on Mission street between Tenth and Eleventh at 6:30 Tuesday morning, August 29, after an illness of a few weeks.

Mr. Smiley was 60 years of age. A native of Ireland, he became a naturalized citizen of the United States and served with this country's forces during World War I. With his wife, the late Halldis Stabell, whose death occurred on March 7 of this year, he came to make his home in Carmel seven years ago. He was a man valued by a wide circle of friends for his unfailing consideration of others and his high standard of integrity.

Olive Cabaniss

Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning in Paul's Chapel, Pacific Grove, for Mrs. Olive Williams Cabaniss; whose death occurred on Monday, August 28, at a local hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Cabaniss was born in 1871 in San Francisco. Possessed of a keen mind and characterized throughout her life by her breadth of interest, she came to know much of the world first hand through the wide travel she shared with her husband, Mr. Charles A. T. Cabaniss. Several years were spent at one time in New York, doing valuable work in the library of Columbia University, and more recently she and her husband made an extensive trip to Mexico.

For the past fifteen years she has been a resident of the Monterey Peninsula, taking an active part in the civic and social life here, serving for a time as president of the local Christian Science church, and sharing generously with many friends the flowers she cultivated as a hobby in the beautiful gardens surrounding the Cabaniss home in the Country club.

Besides her husband, Mr. Charles A. T. Cabaniss, she is survived by a brother, H. W. Bousfield of Brattleboro, Vermont.

Maj. Wm. Dekker

Word that Major William N. Dekker, U. S. Army Air Force, previously reported missing in action since July 19, 1943, has now been officially listed as presumed dead, was this week received by his wife, Mrs. Mary Steinbeck Dekker, who with their two young daughters, Sue and Joan, makes her home at Camino Real and Santa Lucia in Carmel.

Major Dekker, long prominent in business and civic affairs in Monterey, where for a time he served as president of the Monterey Chamber of Commerce, first took up flying as a hobby at the Monterey Airport, and entered the Air Force in February, 1941. He was sent to North Africa in November, 1942 with the Troop Carrier Command and following the African campaign, took part in the first troop landings in Sicily.

The Distinguished Flying Cross, awarded to Major Dekker "for the display of outstanding leadership and extraordinary achievements in leading a Troop Carrier group on a particularly hazardous parachute mission into enemy territory on the night of 11-12 July, 1943" and the Air Medal won by him "for meritorious achievement while participating in a night aerial flight as a member of a combat crew in unarmed, unarmored and unescorted Troop Carrier Aircraft at an altitude of less than 500 feet under adverse flying conditions" were presented to Mrs. Dekker in ceremonies held last May at the Salinas Army Air Base of the 4th Air Force.

Anna L. Sheets Is Fined $250.00 For Contempt Of Court

Mrs. Anna L. Sheets was fined $250 by Judge Louis E. Goodwin in Federal Court in San Francisco Wednesday on a charge of contempt of court with the provision that payment of the fine will be suspended on two conditions: That she refund all over-charges since May 31, 1944, over the amounts set forth as the maximum rent for her property in the preliminary injunction within thirty days, and that at the end of six months she can show she has complied with all court orders and rent regulations.

In the case of Capt. Chisholm, she is required to refund to him an amount specified because he was not allowed the use of a garage included with his rental.

McDonald's Dairy To Open Tuesday

Carmel people will have an opportunity to visit the new home of McDonald's Dairy on San Carlos between 6th and 7th on Tuesday from two to five in the afternoon, Gene Ricketts, the proprietor, said this week.

Work has been going on throughout the summer on the $20,000 concrete building with its Spanish tile roof, and this week the last of the fixtures were placed and equipment was being installed. Of interest to Carmel diners-out is the lunch room in the forward part of the building with its cool green walls, bright red fountain counter, and oak booths with red leather seat covers, where breakfasts and sandwich lunches, as well as the usual soda fountain refreshments will be served.

Behind the lunch room are the office, spotless pasteurizing room, with an adjoining ice box the size of a Carmel cottage, and unloading and handling areas.

Mr. Ricketts, who has been a resident of Carmel for 16 years, has been proprietor of McDonald's Dairy for eight. He and Mrs. Ricketts have been among the most enthusiastic Abalone League members, and now Michael, 9, and Patsy, 7, are looking forward to the revival of the league after the war so they can contribute to the family ball playing reputation.

to take root on other freed islands.

Lt. Holyoake's interest in the Giant Sequoias dates back to his boyhood. Six years ago he sent one to some friends in Honolulu for replanting and discovered that it not only throve there, but has since surrounded itself with a number of healthy young seedlings, proving to him that his present idea of providing living memorials on the islands of the South Pacific is a practical one. With each planting he carefully makes a note of its location, with the idea of retracing his steps after the war and providing a suitable marker for his trees.

Lt. Holyoake began spending his summers in Carmel when he was two months old, continued to come here annually with his family until the outbreak of the war. During one summer eighteen years ago he served as a printer's apprentice on the Pine Cone. His parents plan to return to their Piedmont home this weekend after spending the past month in the Hammond house on Scenic Drive.

Stag Dance At "Club" Final Event Of Summer

The final gala event of the summer program at The Club, Carmel's teen-age recreation center, will take place next Saturday evening, in the form of an all-stag dance, for which preparations have been afoot this week under the leadership of Mr. H. L. Learned, Club Counselor, who has joined the faculty of the high school this fall as head of the instrumental music department. A native of Stockton and graduate of the College of the Pacific with a degree in music from Northwestern University, Mr. Learned taught prior to the outbreak of the war at Wesleyan University, Lincoln, Nebraska.

The Club's new juke box will provide music for the dance and a feature of the evening will be the serving of refreshments. Club memberships will also be on sale at this time. Sundry glamourous improvements and repairs, the work of Chet Knapp-Smith, Arthur Harber and Floyd Adams, Jr., will make their initial appearance Saturday evening, including a sprightly new red top on the pool table. Decorations are in charge of Pamela Dormody and her committee.

A committee of adult chaperons will be on hand to assist Mr. and Mrs. Learned.

A general assembly of all students interested in The Club and its activities, or desirous of becoming members, is called for Tuesday evening, September 12, at 7 p. m., at which time student officers for the coming term will be elected. The advisory Board of The Club is composed of Mrs. J. O. Handley, president; Mrs. G. A. Moller; Mrs. Robert Stanton; Mrs. Carmalita Benson; Mrs. A. E. Thorne; Mr. J. W. Getsinger and Mr O. W. Irwin.

Student plans for the garnishment of The Club in the future include landscape gardening, the enlargement of the refreshment fountain, and the division of the interior into three separate rooms, one for ping-pong, one for pool and the remainder of the space for dancing.

ARROYO SECO CLOSED

The Arroyo Seco Campground in the Monterey Division of Los Padres Forest west of Greenfield has been closed until further notice, the Forest Service office in King City reports. This was necessitated by the failure of the water supply in this heavily used recreation area. It is hoped only a temporary failure exists.

It is expected that the water supply will be restored shortly and the Campground re-opened to the public within a week.

WAC Picture At Carmel Theatre On September 5

The Carmel Theater is running the WAC Picture To The Ladies on September 5, showing the Wacs at work in an army hospital helping wounded soldiers to regain their health, Lt. Helene M. Scheele, in charge of local WAC recruiting, announced this week.

"The need for hospital technicians is great," she said. "Our sick and wounded soldiers are the best cared for in the world. They have the best trained doctors and the finest nurses. The equipment is of the best but it was emphasised that these, in themselves are not enough; they must be backed up by a full staff of highly trained technicians, such as pharmacists, optometrists, dental technicians, x-ray technicians. To help the blind help themselves, teachers of Braille, typewriting and vocational training are needed; the deaf must be instructed in lip reading and the use of hearing aids. Occupational therapists must be on hand to help the mentally or physically handicapped back along the road to a normal and useful life."

The local recruiting team consists of Lt. Helene M. Scheele, Sgt. Elizabeth Carle, and Pvt. Ralph C. Willhauk, and are stationed in the Monterey Chamber of Commerce.

WAC Picture At Carmel Theatre On September 5

The Carmel Theater is running the WAC Picture To The Ladies on September 5, showing the Wacs at work in an army hospital helping wounded soldiers to regain their health, Lt. Helene M. Scheele, in charge of local WAC recruiting, announced this week.

"The need for hospital technicians is great," she said. "Our sick and wounded soldiers are the best cared for in the world. They have the best trained doctors and the finest nurses. The equipment is of the best but it was emphasised that these, in themselves are not enough; they must be backed up by a full staff of highly trained technicians, such as pharmacists, optometrists, dental technicians, x-ray technicians. To help the blind help themselves, teachers of Braille, typewriting and vocational training are needed; the deaf must be instructed in lip reading and the use of hearing aids. Occupational therapists must be on hand to help the mentally or physically handicapped back along the road to a normal and useful life."

The local recruiting team consists of Lt. Helene M. Scheele, Sgt. Elizabeth Carle, and Pvt. Ralph C. Willhauk, and are stationed in the Monterey Chamber of Commerce.
